

THE INDIAN SCIENCE CONGRESS ASSOCIATION
14, Dr.Biresh Guha Street, Kolkata-700 017

To

All Members of the Sectional Committee of the Section of Animal, Veterinary and Fishery Sciences for 2023-2024.

Dear Sir/Madam,

In accordance with Regulations 24, 25 (A) and 25 (G) of the Indian Science Congress Association (extracts quoted overleaf), the Sectional Committee is required to elect a Sectional President for 2024-2025 i.e. 110th Session and a Sectional Recorder for two years 2024-2025 and 2025-2026 i.e. 110th and 111th Sessions of the Indian Science Congress.

I would, therefore, request you to propose as a Member of the Sectional Committee, one name for each of the above named offices from amongst members of the Association with voting right for 2023-2024, in accordance with Regulation 25(G). Each proposal should be accompanied by a statement indicating the willingness of the nominee to accept the office, if elected thereto along with the filled up enclosed form. The proposals should reach the undersigned on or before 10th September, 2023 at the above address.

The nominee shall have the right to withdraw his/her nomination by writing to the General Secretary (Membership Affairs) by 25th September, 2023.

As per Regulations 25(G) (iii) any Past President or Recorder of a Section cannot contest in election for any other Section as per previous practice.

I would also mention for your information that the proposals duly received will be placed before the Council in its meeting to be held in October 2023. The Council will have the right to add or delete name(s), if necessary, to the list of nominations received in respect of your Section and will recommend the final panel at most three names as per Regulation 25(G). The names thus selected shall be circulated by the 15th November to the Members of the Sectional Committee for election of Sectional President and Sectional Recorder by postal ballot.

You will appreciate that owing to various reasons, it is not possible to send any printed copy of the List of Members enrolled up to July 15, 2023, the last date for enrolment of members with rights of voting or holding any office of the Association. You would no doubt satisfy yourself about the membership of your nominee, if necessary, by reference either to the nominee or to the office of the Association or from ISCA Website.

A proposal form is joined hereto.

Yours faithfully,

(Prof. Ranjit Kumar Verma)

Extracts from Regulations 24, 25(A) and 25(G) regarding Election of Sectional President of The Indian Science Congress Association

REGULATION 24

The President and the Recorder shall be elected by the Sectional Committee from among the Members with voting right in accordance with procedure laid down in the Regulations for the purpose. There shall be a Local Sectional Secretary who shall be appointed by the Executive Committee, on the recommendation of the Local Secretaries.

REGULATION 25(A)

The Sectional President shall be elected annually. The term of office of the Recorder shall be for a period of two years following elections.

REGULATION 25(G)

Election of Sectional Officers (President and Recorder) shall be as follows :-

- (i) Only Members with voting right are eligible for being nominated or elected as President, Recorder or Members of a Sectional Committee. Provided any such member contesting election of President and Recorder shall have at least previous ten years of voting right as per September 10 of that year. Provided further that such member should also have a Masters Degree with Ph.D.(except Section of Medical Sciences, Veterinary Sciences and Engineering Sciences where only Master degree is required) completed with ten years of teaching/research experience.
- (ii) Each Member with voting right may designate one Section in which he wishes to be enrolled as a voting member. Members with voting right who do not designate the Section in which they wish to be enrolled, will not be entitled to vote for the election of members of the Sectional Committees.
- (iii) No person shall serve concurrently in more than one Sectional Committee. Once a person becomes member of a section, the same cannot be changed in any case. Whatsoever, if such is found later, the election stands cancelled. Any Past President or Recorder of a Section cannot contest in election for any other Section as per previous practice.

(A). Officers :

The Sectional President shall be elected annually, while the Sectional Recorder shall hold office for two years.

Copies of printed forms inviting nominations for the offices of President and Recorder (when the office is vacant) for the ensuing session will be circulated to members of the respective Sectional Committees by the General Secretary (Membership Affairs) not later than the 10th August. Such nominations of Members with voting right shall be accompanied by a statement of qualification of the nominees for the office and their willingness in writing to accept the same if elected thereto.

Nominations along with a statement of qualification and the consent of the nominees shall reach the General Secretary (Membership Affairs) not later than 10th September.

The nominee shall have the right to withdraw his/her nomination by writing to the General Secretary (Membership Affairs) by 25th September.

The nominations will be placed before the Council in its October meeting. The Council will have the right to add or delete name(s), if necessary, to the list of nominations received in respect of any Section and will recommend the final panel or at most three names. In respect of name or names added, a statement of qualification of the nominee(s) for the office and their willingness in writing to accept the same, if elected thereto, shall be secured before treating such nomination(s) as valid.

The names thus selected shall be circulated by the 15th November to the members of the Sectional Committee for election of President and Recorder (when the office is vacant) by postal ballot. The ballot papers shall reach the General Secretary (Membership Affairs) not later than 15th December.

These ballot papers shall be scrutinised and counted by a group of Council Members to be appointed by the Executive Committee in its meeting previous to the commencement of the Session of the Congress. In case of tie, this should be resolved by drawing of lots.

The results of election shall be reported to the Executive Committee and the Council in their adjourned meeting and subsequently announced in the General Body meeting.

To

All Members of the Sectional Committee of the Section of Environmental and Behavioural Sciences for 2023-2024.

Dear Sir/Madam,

In accordance with Regulations 24, 25 (A) and 25 (G) of the Indian Science Congress Association (extracts quoted overleaf), the Sectional Committee is required to elect a Sectional President for 2024-2025 i.e. 110th Session and a Sectional Recorder for two years 2024-2025 and 2025-2026 i.e. 110th and 111th Sessions of the Indian Science Congress.

I would, therefore, request you to propose as a Member of the Sectional Committee, one name for each of the above named offices from amongst members of the Association with voting right for 2023-2024, in accordance with Regulation 25(G). Each proposal should be accompanied by a statement indicating the willingness of the nominee to accept the office, if elected thereto along with the filled up enclosed form. The proposals should reach the undersigned on or before 10th September, 2023 at the above address.

The nominee shall have the right to withdraw his/her nomination by writing to the General Secretary (Membership Affairs) by 25th September, 2023.

As per Regulations 25(G) (iii) any Past President or Recorder of a Section cannot contest in election for any other Section as per previous practice.

I would also mention for your information that the proposals duly received will be placed before the Council in its meeting to be held in October 2023. The Council will have the right to add or delete name(s), if necessary, to the list of nominations received in respect of your Section and will recommend the final panel at most three names as per Regulation 25(G). The names thus selected shall be circulated by the 15th November to the Members of the Sectional Committee for election of Sectional President and Sectional Recorder by postal ballot.

You will appreciate that owing to various reasons, it is not possible to send any printed copy of the List of Members enrolled up to July 15, 2023, the last date for enrolment of members with rights of voting or holding any office of the Association. You would no doubt satisfy yourself about the membership of your nominee, if necessary, by reference either to the nominee or to the office of the Association or from ISCA Website.

A proposal form is joined hereto.

Yours faithfully,

*Extracts from Regulations 24, 25(A) and 25(G) regarding Election of

REGULATION 24

The President and the Recorder shall be elected by the Sectional Committee from among the Members with voting right in accordance with procedure laid down in the Regulations for the purpose. There shall be a Local Sectional Secretary who shall be appointed by the Executive Committee, on the recommendation of the Local Secretaries.

REGULATION 25(A)

The Sectional President shall be elected annually. The term of office of the Recorder shall be for a period of two years following elections.

REGULATION 25(G)

Election of Sectional Officers (President and Recorder) shall be as follows :-

- (i) Only Members with voting right are eligible for being nominated or elected as President, Recorder or Members of a Sectional Committee. Provided any such member contesting election of President and Recorder shall have at least previous ten years of voting right as per September 10 of that year. Provided further that such member should also have a Masters Degree with Ph.D.(except Section of Medical Sciences, Veterinary Sciences and Engineering Sciences where only Master degree is required) completed with ten years of teaching/research experience.
- (ii) Each Member with voting right may designate one Section in which he wishes to be enrolled as a voting member. Members with voting right who do not designate the Section in which they wish to be enrolled, will not be entitled to vote for the election of members of the Sectional Committees.
- (iii) No person shall serve concurrently in more than one Sectional Committee. Once a person becomes member of a section, the same cannot be changed in any case. Whatsoever, if such is found later, the election stands cancelled. Any Past President or Recorder of a Section cannot contest in election for any other Section as per previous practice.

(A). Officers :

The Sectional President shall be elected annually, while the Sectional Recorder shall hold office for two years.

Copies of printed forms inviting nominations for the offices of President and Recorder (when the office is vacant) for the ensuing session will be circulated to members of the respective Sectional Committees by the General Secretary (Membership Affairs) not later than the 10th August. Such nominations of Members with voting right shall be accompanied by a statement of qualification of the nominees for the office and their willingness in writing to accept the same if elected thereto.

Nominations along with a statement of qualification and the consent of the nominees shall reach the General Secretary (Membership Affairs) not later than 10th September.

The nominee shall have the right to withdraw his/her nomination by writing to the General Secretary (Membership Affairs) by 25th September.

The nominations will be placed before the Council in its October meeting. The Council will have the right to add or delete name(s), if necessary, to the list of nominations received in respect of any Section and will recommend the final panel or at most three names. In respect of name or names added, a statement of qualification of the nominee(s) for the office and their willingness in writing to accept the same, if elected thereto, shall be secured before treating such nomination(s) as valid.

The names thus selected shall be circulated by the 15th November to the members of the Sectional Committee for election of President and Recorder (when the office is vacant) by postal ballot. The ballot papers shall reach the General Secretary (Membership Affairs) not later than 15th December.

These ballot papers shall be scrutinised and counted by a group of Council Members to be appointed by the Executive Committee in its meeting previous to the commencement of the Session of the Congress. In case of tie, this should be resolved by drawing of lots.

The results of election shall be reported to the Executive Committee and the Council in their adjourned meeting and subsequently announced in the General Body meeting.

REGULATION 25(G)

Election of Sectional Officers (President and Recorder) shall be as follows :-

- (i) Only Members with voting right are eligible for being nominated or elected as President, Recorder or Members of a Sectional Committee. Provided any such member contesting election of President and Recorder shall have at least previous ten years of voting right as per September 10 of that year. Provided further that such member should also have a Masters Degree with Ph.D.(except Section of Medical Sciences, Veterinary Sciences and Engineering Sciences where only Master degree is required) completed with ten years of teaching/research experience.
- (ii) Each Member with voting right may designate one Section in which he wishes to be enrolled as a voting member. Members with voting right who do not designate the Section in which they wish to be enrolled, will not be entitled to vote for the election of members of the Sectional Committees.
- (iii) No person shall serve concurrently in more than one Sectional Committee. Once a person becomes member of a section, the same cannot be changed in any case. Whatsoever, if such is found later, the election stands cancelled. Any Past President or Recorder of a Section cannot contest in election for any other Section as per previous practice.

(A). Officers :

The Sectional President shall be elected annually, while the Sectional Recorder shall hold office for two years.

Copies of printed forms inviting nominations for the offices of President and Recorder (when the office is vacant) for the ensuing session will be circulated to members of the respective Sectional Committees by the General Secretary (Membership Affairs) not later than the 10th August. Such nominations of Members with voting right shall be accompanied by a statement of qualification of the nominees for the office and their willingness in writing to accept the same if elected thereto.

Nominations along with a statement of qualification and the consent of the nominees shall reach the General Secretary (Membership Affairs) not later than 10th September.

The nominee shall have the right to withdraw his/her nomination by writing to the General Secretary (Membership Affairs) by 25th September.

The nominations will be placed before the Council in its October meeting. The Council will have the right to add or delete name(s), if necessary, to the list of nominations received in respect of any Section and will recommend the final panel or at most three names. In respect of name or names added, a statement of qualification of the nominee(s) for the office and their willingness in writing to accept the same, if elected thereto, shall be secured before treating such nomination(s) as valid.

The names thus selected shall be circulated by the 15th November to the members of the Sectional Committee for election of President and Recorder (when the office is vacant) by postal ballot. The ballot papers shall reach the General Secretary (Membership Affairs) not later than 15th December.

These ballot papers shall be scrutinised and counted by a group of Council Members to be appointed by the Executive Committee in its meeting previous to the commencement of the Session of the Congress. In case of tie, this should be resolved by drawing of lots.

The results of election shall be reported to the Executive Committee and the Council in their adjourned meeting and subsequently announced in the General Body meeting.

To

*All Members of the Sectional Committee of the

Dear Sir/Madam,

In accordance with Regulations 24, 25 (A) and 25 (G) of the Indian Science Congress Association (extracts quoted overleaf), the Sectional Committee is required to elect a Sectional President for 2024-2025 i.e. 110th Session and a Sectional Recorder for two years 2024-2025 and 2025-2026 i.e. 110th and 111th Sessions of the Indian Science Congress.

I would, therefore, request you to propose as a Member of the Sectional Committee, one name for each of the above named offices from amongst members of the Association with voting right for 2023-2024, in accordance with Regulation 25(G). Each proposal should be accompanied by a statement indicating the willingness of the nominee to accept the office, if elected thereto along with the filled up enclosed form. The proposals should reach the undersigned on or before 10th September, 2023 at the above address.

The nominee shall have the right to withdraw his/her nomination by writing to the General Secretary (Membership Affairs) by 25th September, 2023.

As per Regulations 25(G) (iii) any Past President or Recorder of a Section cannot contest in election for any other Section as per previous practice.

I would also mention for your information that the proposals duly received will be placed before the Council in its meeting to be held in October 2023. The Council will have the right to add or delete name(s), if necessary, to the list of nominations received in respect of your Section and will recommend the final panel at most three names as per Regulation 25(G). The names thus selected shall be circulated by the 15th November to the Members of the Sectional Committee for election of Sectional President and Sectional Recorder by postal ballot.

You will appreciate that owing to various reasons, it is not possible to send any printed copy of the List of Members enrolled up to July 15, 2023, the last date for enrolment of members with rights of voting or holding any office of the Association. You would no doubt satisfy yourself about the membership of your nominee, if necessary, by reference either to the nominee or to the office of the Association or from ISCA Website.
